

IAK's project references in Angola from 1981 to 2013

Evaluation of the Micro-projects Programme (PRM III);

EC-Framework Contract AMS-451 Lot 1 - Rural Development and Food Safety (2005)

The programme was examined with the objective to determine its relevance, effectiveness, impact and sustainability in context of its indicated targets.

Ministry of Agriculture, Angola (1983 – 1991)

- Technical Assistance in organizational development as well as budget and development planning
- Study tours and Training

Modell farm for potato production and seed multiplication in the Huambo province (1981 – 1990)

- Business and development planning
- Assistance to the management
- Training of Angolan experts

Modell farm for beef and milk production in the Malange province (1982 – 1990)

- Business and development planning
- Introduction of Holstein dairy cattle from Germany
- Technical assistance in fodder production and veterinary prophylaxis
- Training of Angolan experts

Technical assistance in agricultural training in the Agricultural Institute Tschivingiru (1981 – 1990)

- Development of curricula and didactic material
- Training of Angolan experts

Development study for the southern provinces Cunene, Namibe, Huila and Cando-Cubango (1984 – 1985)

- Intensification of nomadic animal husbandry
- Construction of wells
- Cattle transport and marketing
- Improvement of the fodder situation

More references under www.iakleipzig.de

